This place has no interest in cleanliness as far as I can see.
Both of the mens rooms were a horrible mess and I was here for a 10 hr break, so it wasnt just walking in at a bad moment.
It appears to be normal for them. Oct 2011: The place is dirty and very loud and busy. The rv card does not work at the pump like most other Flying Js I have visited. They allow what appeared to be undesirables to HANG out by the door at night. It did not give a safe feeling when I approached the door. (TS)

- Fuelman - Aug 2018: RVs are not welcome overnight. Dec

2016: Traveler note: RV lanes are not big-rig friendly. The propane is on the passenger side, so if ones fill is on the opposite side, a few tight turns and lots of sweat later, one can pull through the lane backwards to fill. Best to use truck side, first lane on left. (TS)

UPS - DAT - Fuelman - July 2012: This store is split. It is a shell station and pilot. The pilot is diesel only. The shell is not affiliated with pilot. Was unable to receive rewards credit for the $50 fuel purchase. The Nathans inside the store burned two corn dogs then served us frozen ones, got our money back. The sbarros served us hard pizza rolls. They baked fresh ones, problem solved. Newer store and facilities. (TS) parking - ATM - Laundry - Lube Service - Engine Repair - motel - TCH - Jan 2013: What a dump. No pay at the pump.

You must go inside and pay first. My pump was broken and hanging on a pole. The truck lot is dirt and was a muddy mess. There was a huge porn rack setting out in the middle of the store. The whole place was very run down and low class.

Jun 2012: Huge spaces between the pumps. Really good stop Caters to trucks and RV. Very nice staff. A trucker in a hurry hit a uhaul trailer that was parked at a very odd angle and the staff came out and handled the whole situation with grace and ease, diffusing the whole situation while making sure all concerned had their needs met.(TS)

Dump station (behind building) - Fuelman - Dec 2012: Overnight OK, but ask. Paved lot is huge, and there is an even larger dirt/gravel lot to the north to handle the large crowds that sometimes show up at the restaurant. The travel center is very large and easy for big rig diesel RVs to negotiate. Fueling is west to east. The gas fuel bays are slanted with easy access for long RVs. A noteworthy steak, American & Mexican restaurant ($$) is inside the travel center pavilion. (TS)

highway traffic pattern, there is only one safe way to enter the diesel fuel area with a big rig. Come from the north down the outer loop ramp of US-59 South. Entry is the map pin location.
After fueling at the truck pumps, you can exit around behind the station to head west on US-59. Concrete barriers on the road will only allow a west departure. (TS)

Wouldnt take Good Sam Deluxe card for the usual club discounts on FJ gas or propane. Apr 2012: This is not a corporate store. They do not do team showers, clerk we encountered was rude, defensive & lacked any form of customer service. Towels were torn and fraying, with horrible stains on them and sink had toothpaste stuck on it. Hair on floors and in shower. Really bad experience. (TS)
